ST. LUKE

The woodlands did display the fresh fallen snow, but the bright sun was great. A very pleasing crowd attended the regular preaching services at the St. Luke Baptist Church Sunday, Feb. 5. Rev. J. E. McLaughlin was in charge and Mrs. Josephine Nowlin was at the piano. The Junior Choir gave very up-lifting hymns.

The message by Rev. McLaughlin was taken from St. Luke 14:13, "The Story of the Failing Fig Tree." Subject - "The Tragedy of Uselessness in the Church." This was well delivered by the pastor and left the hearers with thought food. The offering was very good.

Visitors from Belleville, Va. attended the services Sunday.

Mrs. Eva Hamlette, of Pittsburgh, Pa., has returned to her home after spending some time in the home of her friend, Mrs. Grace Walker of Rt. 1, Concord.

Mrs. Hamlette also visited her sister, Mrs. Esther Callaham, who is undergoing a handicap with the removal of another leg. She is being treated at Lynchburg Marshall Lodge Hospital. There is hopes that she will be released from the hospital soon.

Mr. Russell Hunter is improving at his home after being in the hospital with the flu.

Mr. Kenneth Lovelace is now in the hospital after an accident on the job in Lynchburg. We are hoping for him a speedy recovery.

Believe It Or Not

Large animals can climb steps. One one of those cold wintry days right after Mr. Canada had first finished processing his tobacco in the old school bus he had purchased for that purpose, this cow was in trouble. She was trying for the birth of her first calf. Mr. Canada could help her, but it was dreadful out there, so he and his son, Samuel, pulled and pushed and coaxed the cow to go into the bus. In there the help that she needed was accomplished by Mr. Canada. The little Mr. is happy in the bus and the mother when feeding time comes she walks up the steps and spends the night in there with the calf. Quite amusing to see. Cow and calf in a school bus.
